

Fall07 Mu Class Mommy

In the Fall 2007 semester I had the honor of being pledge educator to the M-azing Mu Class. While the task was not easy, especially with eighteen credits on hand and an active role in alpha Kappa Delta Phi, with the help and support from pledge assistant Michelle "Callista" Chang along with the rest of the active house, we were able to watch, guide, and mold the Mu class into confident, strong-willed, and well-rounded leaders. While these girls completed their journey as renewed, more passionate, and determined individuals, these were qualities that they already possessed, qualities we all already have. However, through aKDPHI, they were able to make both their inner beauties and strengths shine more than ever. No words can truly explain the feeling of watching these beautiful and intelligent women cross the line into sisterhood. They stepped outside of their own boundaries, learned that hard work and determination does have its rewards, and proved to us, as well as themselves time and time again that heart means everything. I am proud to call Jane "moon*light" Choe, Amy "A*krya" Tsai, and Peggy "Cascada" Yu my babies, and most of all, our sisters. I, as well as the rest of the sisters of the chapter only hope that these three extraordinary women will continue to grow, dream, and achieve in the way of a KDPHI. After all, if you are given the chance to be a part of something bigger, something inspirational, and life-changing, why not take it?
